UNITED STATES.

Bronze and perfect, unless otherwise stated. Those engraved or inscribed for award are so mentioned. One of the best lines ever submitted for competition. The greater portion (with others of Schools and Colleges which follow) are by engravers of the first half of the last century, and represent the work of those who covered nearly the entire field. Those who preceded them, with others who lived in their time, not mentioned here, would form together but a "corporal's guard."
